“Where Has America Gone?” By Chris Gonthier, BMAO Moral Action

Every day we see our nation slipping further and further away from the country our forefathers intended it to be. We can come up with multiple reasons and excuses as to the why, but what is the real problem. The Left will tell you it is racism, capitalism, and a whole multitude of other isms.

The truth is this country is slipping is because of apathetic Christians. We are allowing Hollywood, wicked sports athletes, and ungodly school instruction to destroy our children.

We are under a clear mandate to ensure children receive the proper instruction. The Bible says, “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Proverbs 22:6.

The movies that are produced by Hollywood are having the effect of brainwashing our children. The way children, especially young girls are portrayed, psychologically prepares them to be sexual objects. We don’t see gentlemen portrayed, but men with unacceptable qualities.

Our children are being desensitized, groomed if you will, to be easily manipulated. When a popular male role model doesn’t have Biblical standards, then that is what a young lady desires for a future spouse. Young men see popular girls on television that live a very promiscuous lifestyle, and they desire and crave that sexual immoral lifestyle.

What is even worse is how frequently perverse lifestyles are included in movies. Homosexuality is still sin and will always be sin. The attempts to make it appear normal and acceptable totally violate God’s plan, and yet we allow our children, and ourselves, to become desensitized to this wicked sin.

We have allowed sports to become religion, and athletes to become gods. The way some famous athletes express themselves is nothing short of pure evil. It is not appropriate to mistreat others, especially women.

It is wrong to allow people to use fame and popularity to lead others away from God. There is a daily bombardment of ungodly and anti-Christian influence being subjected on all of society.

You can see anything you want or desire on social media, platforms censor Christianity, but not evil. The craze among children is what is new on Tik Tok, and what must they now do to become or stay popular.

What are we to do, and how are we to get America back on track?

2 Chronicles 7:14 tells us, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

People often believe prayer alone will solve our problems as a nation. As noted above, there is a four-part plan to heal our nation.

Make no mistake about it, our nation definitely needs healing. We can understand humbling ourselves, we know about prayer, and we will acknowledge we need to seek God. The “wicked ways” is the part we definitely overlook.

One very serious wicked behavior is the apathy the typical Christian portrays. The scriptures say, “Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.”

1 Corinthians 4:2. That is in everything that we do, and everything that we say.

The Christians in this nation have failed in being good stewards in politics and in the education of our children. We have allowed godless reprobates to sit on school boards and decide the curricula that our children are to learn.

Christians don’t want to become involved in politics, so those who do are the ones with the influence. I know some will say, “I home school.” And that is good if you are able to.

Some are not in a situation that is conducive for them to home school. This doesn’t mean they are bad parents, maybe they just are not able to home school, or private school educate their children.

Others will say that all my children are grown, or I do not have children. It would be wise to remember as we grow older, the younger generation will be stepping up, and they will be the ones writing and enforcing laws.

So what are we to do as Christians to overcome these conditions?

The first thing we can do is to become involved. Go to school board meetings and city council meetings. Run for vacant seats and let conservative Christian voices be heard.

We need people to say no to ineffectual and or wicked curriculum that is being forced onto our children. There are books in the libraries of some schools that glorify pedophilia and sexual promiscuity. Language is used in these books, that if they were spoken in the halls or in the classroom, the children would probably get suspended.

Books which lead to gender confusion and alternate sexual lifestyle are available in school and city libraries.

Some of the classroom instructional material teaches racism (Critical Race Theory) and instills hatred for our nation. No longer is civics taught in schools and children do not know that they have rights. This means the people can be more easily manipulated and controlled.

Perhaps the greatest secular danger that we as a nation face today is the idea that we live in a democracy. Understand this, the United States has never been a democracy. We are a constitutional republic. We don’t live under the majority rule concept when it comes to individual liberties.

Our rights as individuals are guaranteed and protected by the constitution, but were given to us by God.

Never surrender to man what was given to us by God.

Broken: World Missions Day 2022 February 27

We live in a broken world full of broken people.
We know that. We see that. We say that.
Jesus did, too.

Matthew 9:36

"But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd."

Jesus was moved with compassion for the broken. Missions happens when we are burdened for broken people. It was in our brokenness that Jesus found us, loved us, and saved us.

The story of missions is the story of people – missionaries - who are burdened for people. Burdened enough to go. Burdened enough to sacrifice their lives for the lives of others.

The harvest is plentiful, and we need laborers. But laborers are birthed out of a burdened and broken heart for the lost and weary and scattered. Our vision and impact in reaching the world will never be bigger than our burden for broken people. That's the catalyst to missions. That's the heart of missionaries. We indeed live in a broken world full of broken people, but does that "move us with compassion"? May we be burdened for broken people during this World Missions Day season and every day.

"The Gift of Peace"

A woman had a large number of friends and when Christmas rolled around she sincerely wanted to buy each a gift. Money and time were short and she was anxious as to how she might do this.

The days of course flew by. Before she knew it, Christmas was near and she had been unable to buy any gifts. By now of course the pressure was tremendous.

Suddenly she had a brilliant idea! She would buy each one a beautiful card exactly alike!

Rushing to a nearby gift store she searched and found a box of fifty and they were exactly what she wanted. Beautifully embossed Christmas flowers framed in gold graced the front.

She hurried home and began addressing the envelopes and signed each one, "With all my love." She made an even quicker trip to the post office and was relieved her task was finished.

After the holiday when she was packing away the decorations, she found a couple of the cards that had been left over. Realizing she hadn't even read the inside, she opened one.

As she read the message she broke out into a cold sweat, her hands shook, and she felt very sick at her stomach. The message within the card read, "This Christmas card is just to say, a little gift is on the way!"

Isn't it sad at the time of year when we are supposed to be celebrating the birth of our Savior that there is little peace?

I am not talking about world peace; that is not possible until after the return of Christ. I am talking about inner peace, the absence of conflict within us, and tranquility in the face of outward turmoil.

Much like this woman, many experience great anxiety and have little peace. Not just during the holiday but year round it is hard to find people who possess true peace

Why is it so illusive to all of us? Why is it so hard for Christians to experience it in their daily lives? They hunger after it; they desire it, yet they never seem to attain it. Why?

I can tell you one thing for sure it isn't the Lord's fault. He is the "Prince of Peace." Isaiah 9:6 He even promised it to us.

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

John 14:27

No, it is there for the taking. The problem is we "rob" ourselves of the peace He has for us. It is right there for our taking. So how do we deprive ourselves of the thing we want so much?

Having a Wrong Attitude and Heart Toward Others

Surely you already know that envy, strife, hatred, grudges, unforgiveness, and backbiting are not of God, they are of the devil. Yet we allow these things in our lives and fail to see where they are coming from.

We justify them by our hurt, but they are still NOT of God. These will steal every shred of peace or hope of peace you might have. Things of Satan and the things of God cannot dwell together.

"For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, . . ."

James 3:16-17a

"Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them." Psalms 119:165

The answer is that we love His law, His commandments more than we love our rights, our comfort, and having our way.

All other irritations and offenses fade away because pleasing and obeying Him is more important.

The unpleasant, unkind, and annoying things others do are nothing compared to our love of God. And what do we get in return? Nothing offends us. – peace within.

Not Accepting God's Will in Your Life

One of the biggest peace robbers is fighting those things in our life we have no control over. It might be a person, a circumstance or the attitude or the choices of others.

This is like beating at the air, you wear yourself out and all you get in return is anger and frustration. Struggling against the unchangeables in our lives is actually sin, although few of us view it as such.

We are in essence telling God that He does not know what is best for us. He sees them as opportunities to draw close to Him, be a testimony to others, and for spiritual growth and strengthening.

We on the other hand usually view them as a call for a fight!

To allow our state in life to determine our mental and emotional condition is to be carnally minded. Our focus is on the world and the flesh, not being spiritual minded.

Romans 8:6 says, "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Peace is far from us.

If we would only keep our minds and hearts centered on Him and trust in His loving wisdom, we can have the peace we want even if nothing ever changes.

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

Isaiah 26:3

Withdrawing and Isolating Yourself From Others

Satan knows full well the peace that awaits us and he wants to deprive us of it and make us miserable. He is a predator and predators isolate their victims so they can destroy them. Just watch a spider or a lion in action.

When you want to pull the covers up over your head and never see another person, be warned that Satan is at work in your life.

“Silence and Solitude”

How good are you at listening?

Stillness gives you the opportunity to slow down, be still, then hear from God in the silence. Resist the temptation to speak, listen closely without distractions, and be ready for God's direction and instruction.

Silence is not the practice of waiting in a passive posture but listening in a proactive manner. If you're ready to listen and pray a very dangerous prayer then pray as Samuel did:

“Speak (Lord), for your servant is Today, I will spend quiet time in PRAYER

By Bro. Larry Barker

Years ago I turned to my wife and asked, “What is it like being married to a guy who does not wait for God to open doors but tends to kick them in?”

She replied, “I have kind of gotten used to it!”

The truth hurts but everyone needs someone who loves them enough to speak it.

And so it is with many of us . . .

In Exodus 14 the children of Israel had left Egypt, and the Red Sea was before them as the Egyptian army closed in from behind. Scripture says they were terrified and cried out to the Lord for His help.

Have you been there before?

Can you relate to not being sure what to do or how to handle a certain situation?

Ever felt like you were in completely over your head?

As their leader, Moses tells the Israelites not to be afraid but to watch and see God's deliverance. In Exodus 14:14 he says, “The Lord will fight for you; you must be quiet.”

Wow! There's another challenge . . . remaining quiet.

Another example of a difficult-to-follow verse is Psalm 46:10: “Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.”

And another is Psalm 27:14, “Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.”

Don't be scared. Be quiet. Be still.

God's life-altering command to us in Psalm 46:10 is to be still and know that He is God.

I'm not really good at being still and would much rather be busy and active. You know you need to make things happen, and you are either a part of the problem or the solution.

Yet there are several biblical examples where God speaks loudest when we are our quietest. He spoke to Elijah in a still, small voice while He was in a quiet place.

It has been well said that “quiet is the think tank of the soul.” It is far too easy to become human doings rather than human beings.

Be still and get alone with God and His Word.

In a Whisper:
How To Hear the Voice of God

Mark Batterson says, “If you want to hear the heart of God, silence is the key. If you want the Spirit of God to fill you, be still.”

Stillness and silence are the biggest challenges to being able to retreat with God where we can be encouraged and refreshed by Him. We all need that quiet place where we can rest in Him.

For prayer to truly be communication with God requires not only talking with Him but also listening to Him.

The psalmist reminds us in 84:10 that, “Better is one day in your courts than a thousand anywhere else.”

Batterson also says, “If we want to do more by doing less, we need to get into God's presence. It's our most efficient use of time by a factor of a thousand. And quiet is the key.”

Elijah, Isaiah, Paul, John, and many others heard the Lord's voice because

Lindsey Suffers Loss of Devoted Pastor

Thomas Wayne Dickerson was born on June 23, 1955 in Terrel, Kaufman County, TX to Eulie Truman Dickerson and Leonal (Askew) Dickerson.

Thomas left this life on Friday, Oct. 15, 2021 in Oklahoma City, and proceeded to meet his Lord and Savior in heaven and be rejoined with family and friends that preceded him in death.

Thomas is survived by his wife, Francis Maritza Dickerson who he married on March 28, 1987 in Houston, TX . He is also survived by one brother, three sisters and their companions; many nephews, nieces as well as many friends.

Thomas accepted Christ as his Savior at the age of 11 and felt the call to preach the gospel, which he accepted at the age of 13.

After graduating from Forney High School he enrolled in Jacksonville College where he earned an AA degree in Religious Education.

He earned a BA degree from Texas-Tyler and his Master of Divinity degree from Baptist Missionary Theological Seminary in Jacksonville, TX .

Bro. Dickerson pastored several churches in Texas and Arizona through the years. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church in Lindsay.

A private service to honor Bro. Dickerson was held at 1:00pm on Sunday, October 18, 2021 at Wilbourn Family Funeral Home in Lindsay.

The members of the Lindsay church were so glad to have Bro. Dickerson as their pastor. He enjoyed preaching God's word.

“Silence and Solitude” continued

they were in His presence. Hearing from the Lord demands a quiet place of solitude, stillness, and silence.

Waiting requires a willingness to wait on the Lord.

Waiting requires trusting God's timing and plan.

Waiting requires believing He is in time, on time, every time.

Waiting requires patience and trust even when He seems to be silent.

Although you may not be good at waiting and would rather make things happen on your own, you must see the wisdom of seeking His instruction and not moving forward without Him.

Mark Batterson continues,
Silence is the difference between sight and insight.

Silence is the difference between happiness and joy.

Silence is the difference between fear and faith.

Silence could well be the difference between what you can accomplish and what God can accomplish.

Often God's instructions won't make sense when He calls on us to wait, be still, or go the extra mile, but you can always trust His voice.

It has been said that, “The devil wants you to worry about what's next so you can't enjoy what's now.”

The devil is a liar. Stop worrying. Focus on God and enjoy every single day He has given.”

In Psalm 27:4 David reminds us that even when the enemy is closing in, “I have asked one thing from the Lord; it is what I desire: to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, gazing on the beauty of the Lord.”

Hear God's voice through the challenges given to us in His written Word. Be still. Be quiet. Be alone with Him in silence. He tells us to seek Him, abide in Him, rest in Him, trust Him, talk with Him!

Praying and having communion with God is a two-way street: You pray, God listens, and God speaks when you're ready, which requires stillness and silence!

"Travel Time"

The airline stewardess suffered a slip of the tongue when she came on the intercom and stated, "Our flight from Oklahoma City to Dallas is two hours and thirty eight minutes." She quickly changed it to thirty-eight minutes.

Everyone laughed at the thought of spending two and a half hours flying from Oklahoma City to Dallas. I thought it was humorous, but realized how times have changed.

Today, we can travel great distances by airplane. Discounting the time changes and the changing of planes in Dallas, it actually took two hours and thirty-three minutes to fly from Oklahoma City to Ontario, California.

However, time changes really make a difference. I flew from Oklahoma City to Dallas and on to Ontario. Without considering the time change, I left Dallas at 9:57am and arrived at Ontario at 10:42am. Not bad! Thirteen hundred miles in 45 minutes.

This reminded me of the story of an old timer who was going to fly from Philadelphia to Chicago. The ticket agent told him they would take off at 10:30am and arrive at 9:50am.

Not understanding the time to change, the old man declared, "I don't want a ticket, but if it's okay, I think I'll stick around just to see that thing take off!"

Speed in travel has really changed in my lifetime, but it has always depended on the type of vehicle you are in.

When I was in the Marines, I was preparing to ship overseas and had a 1951 Plymouth. I didn't want to leave it in California, so I was going to drive it back to Oklahoma and leave it with my parents.

I was assigned to a fighter jet squadron with the Marine Air Wing at El Toro, CA. I went in to ask for a ten day leave. The Adjutant, who was also one of our jet pilots, asked me where I was going. "Oklahoma," I said.

He snorted, "Son, you don't need ten days to go to Oklahoma. Why, we make a turn-a-round over Oklahoma City to make our approach into El Toro."

I knew that was a slight exaggeration, but replied, "Lieutenant, I'm driving a 1951 Plymouth, not flying one of your 900 mph jets!"

He smiled and said, "I guess that would make a difference, wouldn't it?" He gave me my leave.

One of the fascinating things of our future after the rapture, when we receive our glorified bodies, is we will be like Jesus. If you want to know what that entails, all you have to do is look at what He did while He was here.

In 1 John 3:2 we are told "when He shall appear, we shall be like Him..."

In John 6:19 we see that He walked on water.

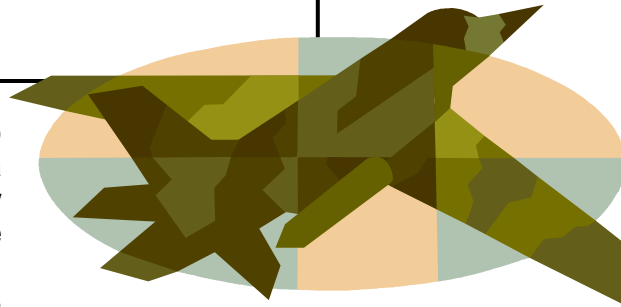

Then John 6:21 says, "They they willingly received Him into the ship and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went." They were in the middle of the lake and then they were at the shore. Friend, that's time and space travel.

In John 20:26 He entered a room by just appearing. He didn't even need a door.

Luke 4:29-30 says, "And they rose up, and thrust Him out of the city, and led Him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong. But He, passing through the midst of them went His way."

I'm looking forward to that time a trip of 1300 miles won't even take 45 minutes. It will be instantaneous.

That is why it is no accident that we are most prone to separate ourselves from our friends, family and church when we are facing emotional strain.

The Devil knows God provided Christian fellowship to encourage us and see us through such times.

“Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.”
Galatians 6:2

There is no way you will find peace, because Satan will be right there, pounding away at you, driving you further and further into despair and unrest.

Throwing a Pity Party When Life’s Problems Come

God tells us that there will be problems, to expect them. “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” John 16:33

In spite of this He still promises us peace. He has already triumphed whatever we are facing. Self-pity is another unrecognized sin. It denies the sovereignty and power of God.

Self-pity shouts loud and clear, “God is not big enough to take care of my problem! God does not care about me! God cannot help me!” Not to mention it can make us down right mean!

All these lies we recognize. . . right now, but when we are in the throes of our misery they appear as truth. It never ceases to amaze me how we can expect God to do more for us than He did His own Son while He was upon the earth.

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.” Isaiah 26:3

If we remove our center of attention from our condition, our suffering, ourselves, and place that intense focus on Christ, we are promised perfect peace!

Inner peace is a choice, moment by moment, day by day. I fear many are in the habit of not actively choosing it but waiting for it to “happen” to them. I know I have been guilty of this.

How easy it is to fall into the snare of letting the world, the devil, the flesh, and our circumstances make our choices of how we feel and respond. His peace defies logical explanation and is irrelevant to our present condition or any trial we might endure.

“And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”
Philippians 4:7

Do you long for that kind of peace? You can have it: He wants you to have it. It was His gift to you through the Babe whose birth we celebrate this holiday season.

Luke 2:14 records the birth of Christ and the angels joyous announcement to the world.

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.”
